

Collingwood Preparative Meeting 1871 - 1891

Archives: 99 - 0 - 1

This minute book is held by the Canadian Quaker Archives and Library in Newmarket, Ontario. The Collingwood and Grey minute books were given to the archives in 1991.

Grey County, along the shore of Georgian Bay, was opened in the 1840's for settlement and a number of Quakers from West Lake, Pickering and Yonge St moved there. Slowly, Quaker communities grew large enough to justify building meeting houses. The Collingwood meeting house was built in 1861 followed by Sydenham and St. Vincent, both in 1866. Grey Monthly Meeting was formed in 1871 over the Collingwood and Sydenham Preparative Meetings (1866) and the indulged St Vincent meeting. The meeting was Orthodox. These meetings were all laid down by 1900. See the detailed article about these meetings in the Canadian Quaker History Journal, No. 49, pp. 3-10, 1991. See also "A Grey County Odyssey" in the CQHJ, No. 55, p. 17, 1994.

The transcription was coordinated by Jane Zavitz Bond, archivist for Canada Yearly Meeting, and fully transcribed by Sheila Havard and prepared for posting by Randy Saylor. The text was transcribed as written. Transcriber notes are in square brackets. The book has not been proof read.

Answer to 1st Query Friends generally are careful to attend most of our meetings for religious worship and discipline. the hour is nearly observed but they are not clear of all unbecoming behaviour in them.

Answer to 2nd Friends appear to be preserved in love one towards another We know of no difference having arisen between them. We believe friends generally avoid and discourage talebearing and detraction

Answer to 3 Friends do we believe generally endeavor to train up their children and those of other friends under their care in the principles of the Christian religion as professed by us, and to a good degree in the plainness and simplicity which it enjoins Most of them endeavor to be good examples in these respects themselves and to guard their children and all others under their care against corrupt conversation and the reading of pernicious books

Ans to 4th We believe friends are diligent in reading the Holy Scriptures in their Families collectively

5 So far as we are aware friends avoid the use of distilled spirituous liquors except for purposes strictly medicinal, and are clear of frequently taverns and attending places of diversion

6th The circumstances of the poor and those likely to require assistance are duly inspected we know of no case requiring ~~assistance~~ relief and they are advised and assisted in suitable employments, and their children and all others under our care are properly educated for the ordinary duties of life

7th Friends are clear of complying with Military requisitions or of paying any fine or tax instead thereof

8th We believe Friends are just in their dealings and mostly punctual in fulfilling their engagements and are careful to conduct their business as becomes our religious profession And when any give occasion for fear on these accounts they are seasonably labored with for their preservation and recovery
