Corrections:

Re: The Arthur Garratt Dorland Friends Collections; A Dream Come True: Newsletter 37, p. 12. It was Stephen Kent (not Barbara Curtis) who first brought the availability on the market of the Rendell Rhoades Collection to the attention of Jane Zavitz.

Re: The Moore House, Sparta: Newsletter 37, page 29. News & Notes. The article on the house appeared in the Feb/March issue of Canada Century Home and was written by Elizabeth Ingolfsrud. The title of the article is: "The Village of Sparta", p. 44-51.

Deaths:

Newsletter 30, page 30.

Julian Davies, d. 12.6.1985

Hanna Pollard Wake, d. 26.1.1985, Bordon, Sask., originally of Norwich, Ontario.

Isaac A. Willson, d. 1.4.1985, St. Thomas, Ont.

Canadian Quaker History Newsletter is published by the Canadian Friends Historical Association twice annually. The Newsletter is included in the membership fees. Individual copies are available at $3.50 per copy.

Guest Editor Winter Issue 1987.

The next issue (No. 42) of Canadian Quaker History Newsletter will be under a guest editor, David Holden, Sociology Dept., Queen's University at Kingston. His editorial (and article) will relate to his talk to the Annual Meeting of the Canadian Friends Historical Association at Pickering College, Saturday, October 17, 1987. We welcome others who might be able to undertake editing an Issue. We plan to have a Winter and a Summer issue each year with a News Sheet when necessary.

We welcome articles and contributions, including letters to the editor.

Canadian Quaker History Newsletter is published twice annually by the Canadian Friends Historical Association (as part of the Annual Subscription to the Association)

Contents of the published articles are the responsibility of the authors.
